

U.S.A. LOCALS

House to House Delivery was not instituted until 1863. During 1840 to 1863 there were numerous carriers and local Dispatch Companies who delivered the mail from the various Post Offices to individual homes and offices.

SWART'S CITY DISPATCH

1852 Swart's City Dispatch (1849 2cent Red) New York to Philadelphia

ONE

Outer Wrapper originally contained a Bill of Lading 22 May 1852

BLOOD'S
Service 1841 - 1860

28 January - BLOOD'S Penny Post PHILAD'A 1c Bronze on Lilac, cancelled with acid

TWO

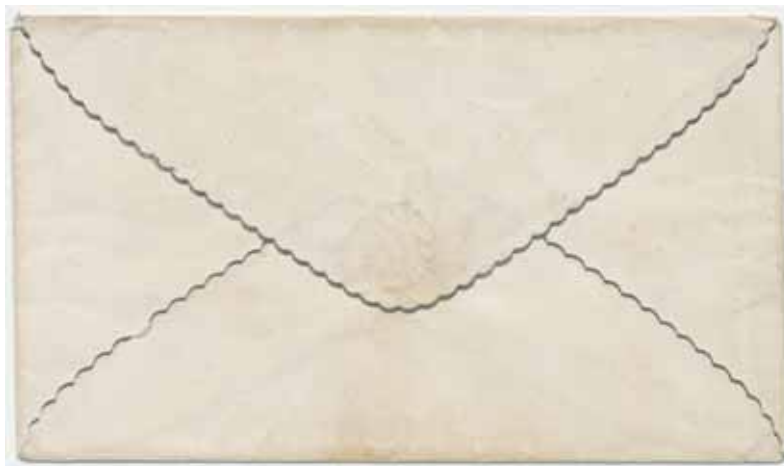

No Postal Markings

BROADWAY POST OFFICE CITY EXPRESS

1857 New York BROADWAY Post Office City Express PAID

THREE

Ladies Envelope Black Edging (Mourning?)

CITY DISPATCH – PHILADELPHIA

1860 One Cent CITY DISPATCH – DELIVERY Adhesive Black – (Stone 1)

FOUR

No Postal Markings – Complete with Entire Letter – Undated.

BOYD'S CITY EXPRESS
NEW YORK
Service 1844 - 1867

1861 - New York BOYD'S CITY EXPRESS POST 1860 1 Cent Blue- Grey
Readdressed - Handstruck "FORWARDED DUE 8 (Cents)"

FIVE

No Postal Markings

BOYD'S CITY EXPRESS POST
NEW YORK
Service 1844 – 1867

1863 - New York BOYD'S CITY EXPRESS POST 1860 1 Cent Blue- Grey

Handstruck "COLLECT 1 CENT"

SIX

No Postal Markings (Set Off?)

6